

CALL TO ARTISTS

Tennessee Valley Unitarian Universalist Church Art Gallery Knoxville, Tennessee

The Tennessee Valley Unitarian Universalist Gallery is planning exhibitions for August 8, 2026 through the following 18 months. Artists living within 250 miles of Knoxville are encouraged to submit proposals.

This premier not-for-profit gallery, located just west of The University of Tennessee, programs six exhibitions per year, showcasing regional artists working in a wide variety of styles, media, and genres. The gallery can only show work that is two-dimensional and ready to hang in a professional manner. Work must be appropriate for audiences of all ages and will be decided on by the art committee. The TVUUC Art Gallery Committee reserves the right to pair artists for two-person exhibitions but will also consider artists for one-person exhibitions as well as group shows by arts organizations. Exhibitions typically run for two months.

To learn more about TVUUC, please visit our Web site: <http://www.tvuuc.org>.

The nonrefundable entry fee for submitting a proposal is $30 per individual artist or $60 per official organization. The gallery provides publicity (including show postcards) and hosts a reception for the artist(s) whose work is selected.

Individual artists have the option of submitting their work by email or physically delivering their submission to TVUUC. Email submissions will be sent to Kate McCullough at kateswaterart@gmail.com. Artists will submit an online package to Kate or a flash drive (to the church or to Kate with prior arrangement) with eight to ten images of the work (or type of work) they wish to show, a one-paragraph bio with name, address, phone, email address, a brief artist statement and an image list including title, size and media. Include payment with proposal. If submitting by email, please send or deliver a check for $30 in payment to TVUUC (memo to the Art Committee).
